Hosting for smooth apps

One good dedicated server in Bangladesh is enough to start. It is close to your customers, so the live map, chat and notifications answer fast.

- Launch: one dedicated server (Ryzen class, NVMe disk) runs the app, database and photos. ৳10,000 to 14,000 a month.
- Backup: a daily copy kept at a second place. ৳500 to 1,500 a month. One server alone is a risk, so do not skip this.
- Growing: a second server so the database has its own machine. ৳20,000 to 30,000 a month.
- CDN: not needed. A CDN keeps copies of photos near users. At this size the server is fast enough. If photos load slowly later, add Cloudflare, its free plan is enough.
- Before launch: a load test with thousands of simulated users, included in development.

3. Costs that grow with customers

4. Payments

Customers pay NEW directly, online. No cash goes to technicians. Small payments use mobile wallets, large payments use cards or bank transfer.

How the customer pays

- Booking confirmed: minimum visit charge is paid first.
- Technician inspects, NEW sends an estimate: parts plus service charge.
- Customer approves and pays online, then work starts.
- Cash stays available as a fallback. Online payers get a reward, so they choose it.

Which method for which amount

- Under ৳5,000: bKash, Nagad, Rocket, Upay.
- ৳5,000 to ৳30,000: wallets or card.
- AC purchase, ৳30,000 and above: card through a gateway, or bank transfer (no percentage fee).

Direct bKash or Nagad API	One wallet each	1.2% to 2.0%	Lowest fee but one contract per wallet and a longer approval
Bank transfer or NPSB	Bank accounts	Bangladesh Bank set a 1% minimum for NPSB merchant payments	Best for ACs. Admin confirms the receipt

Our suggestion

Launch with cash plus one gateway (SSLCommerz or aamarPay) for wallets and cards, and bank transfer for ACs. Add the direct bKash API later. Keep the gateway swappable so you can change it without rebuilding the apps.

NEW. Estimate for discussion, not a contract. Provider rates change. VAT and tax are extra.
